20. (Unclassified - PLC) LEGISLATION Together with [REDACTED] OGC, and [REDACTED] met with Tim Ingram, Staff Director, and Ted Jacobs, staff member, of the House Government Operations Subcommittee on Government Information and Individual Rights, and discussed the effects of H. R. 169 and H. R. 12039 upon the Agency. We discussed briefly the problems the Agency would have with the requirement for notification. Ingram had requested the meeting for his background information. Ingram was aware that Chairwoman Bella Abzug (D., N. Y.), had talked to the Director earlier in the day but was not aware of the outcome of their discussion. Subsequent to the meeting, [REDACTED] and I met with Mary Lawton, Tom Martin, and others in the Justice Department, and discussed Justice's proposed testimony (to be given by Lawton) and the Agency's position. We agreed it would be difficult to come up with a unified Administration position on the bills since the programs in question were quite different. Each agency would have to determine its own position.

23. (Internal Use Only - LLM) LIAISON Marian Czarnecki, Chief of Staff, House International Relations Committee, called to advise that page six of today's Congressional Check List is missing from his copy and I filled him in on what the map on the flip side of page five portrayed. I promised to send him the missing page.

24. (Internal Use Only - LLM) LIAISON Spoke further with Bill Schneider, in the office of Senator James Buckley (R., N. Y.), about his pending request relating to expansion of steel mill production in China and I said I thought we could provide some unclassified data later in the week. Schneider said the particulars concerning the foreign national who would like to meet with us are available to be picked up from his office.
